

Exceptions to the AWA regulations and standards

One animal use protocol is approved in which domestic pigs may be taken off solid food for up to 36 hours. During that period, they will be given molasses and electrolytes orally. The liquid diet substitute is to help remove solid waste from the large bowels prior to a terminal procedure.